Dedication

To Mrs. Phyllis Irish
Who, for these past three years,
Has been our friend and class advisor
Whether far away or near.

You were always there when needed
To lend a helping hand,
And even though you are far away
We'll always think you're grand.

We made our prom a huge success
With your help and great suggestions.
Your patience is the uttermost,
Of this there is no question.

In recognition of your efforts
We, the Class of '62,
Hereby dedicate this Voyager
Especially to you.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

DATELINE 1972 ----------This is the report of Tom The Tapper Peterson, special agent for the A.T.T.(American Telephone Tappers Association). A recent tap of the party line of Rosemary Wienkes, head grape stomper for the Mogan David Wine Company, and her friend Delores Wilson who recently made society headlines by setting the record for the longest engagement in the history of Fennimore. It was announced that the happy day will be February 29, 1981, but Delores isn't too sure she'll go through with it yet. She can't decide whether she wants to get married or stay single.

Following are choice bits of the conversation recorded.

Larry Preston owner of Chevrolet Motors recently completed the merger of the Ford and Chevrolet cars. He always liked Fords anyway. Larry calls his new model the Fordalet.

Another member of the class of '62 who is prominent in the world of economics is Larry Koschkee who has begun a "two-mule team" to outer Mongolia (One for him, the other for you-know-who).

Speaking of traveling, Lynette Bray recently returned from a European tour as the top model and fashion editor for William Rumler, who recently designed the floor-ward look in ladies dresses.

Betty Hoffman, ticket salesman on Broadway says that it's impossible to meet the demand for tickets to theplay, "The Life of Einstien," starring Sandra Gunderson as Einstien's mother. Suzie Grizwold and her art class from Lancaster High School have been contracted to design and paint thescenes and properties for this great Broadway classic. Rosemary Scanlan, popcorn gourmet, certainly has been very busy popping.

Celebrities attending the preformance are - Jerry Feakes who announced today that his hat is in the ring for the nomination as dog catcher for New York City; Carolyn Craig who has been vigorously campaigning for the Senatorial seat next to Senator Kaap; and Buck Bukoski, world famous playboy, who made headlines when he was mobbed by a riotous mob of heart broken females while embarking from his private jet here at Idlewild Airport. His press agent, Gladys Davidson, announced thefact that Mr. Bukoski has taken out his 439th marriage license.

The report further states that Mary Ann Howell, editor of the "Nosey News" column for the Fennimore Journal, reported in her column yesterday that District Judge Terry Brechler handed down a sentence of 99 years to life to David O'Flahrity, well known pignapper. In making a statement to the press Dave said,"I'll get that Judge if it's the last thing I ever do." It may well be the last thing he ever does. Another interesting item in her column concerned Elaine Marish, famous "twister," and Laurene Stich, famous for her dance the "mashed potato". The ladies have now combined their dances and come up with the "potato twist". Bill Witzig who employs them in his nationally famous night club, "The Pink Snake," wound up in the hospital after throwing out both elbows trying to do the newdance. Miss Howell concluded her column by telling of a rendezvous with an old friend Lenard Hammond. He had been forced to retire from Fennimore High School as janitor when he fell and acquired a stubbed toe.

Rosemary said that she had heard that Donna Gratz, psychologist replacing Mr. Thomley, reported to Jerome Flesh, now principal of F.H.S., that she is having a considerable amount of trouble with one of her students, the daughter of Rita Klaas who finally settled down on a farm north of Fennimore a few years ago. Miss Gratz felt she would have to refer the problem to Doctor Brendemuehl. Bill is now an accomplished physician.

Speaking of violins....Delores heard that Jim Neckvatal is practicing diligently for his 1973 concert at Carnegie Hall where he has replaced Jack Benny. Charlene Martin a well-known music critic led a crowd of furious music lovers in a tomatoe riot. Police woman Janet Bender surpressed the riot only after threatening to use her gun. Perhaps your violin needs tuning, Jim!

"Hey, that reminds me", said Delores, "I tuned into radio station WSL and of all things I heard Ronnie Morse broadcasting the news. That 3rd hour Speech training really came in handy." And did you know that F.H.S. has hired a new speech teacher, Norma Jean Kirschbaum.

She always said she would replace Miss Rothe someday. Her prize student is the daughter of Janett Cohen Draggs. Janett and her architect husband are in the process of refacing the white house. Our new President, Mary Jean Adkins, wants it painted pink; but her good friend and neighbor across the street, Janice Furrer, protested. She feels it will clash with her lavendar convertible. They resumed the friendship when Janice consented to having her car repainted blue. She was delighted that the blue wouldn't clash with the yellow in her office in the Library of Congress.

While we're on the subject, I received a letter from one of our old classmates, LeRoy Arneson. He is a government employee. How about that!! LeRoy's duties include putting up the flag on the White House lawn and scraping bubble gum off chairs for the Secretary of State, Eileen Block. Miss Block's assistant, Karla Freymiller, got a letter the other day from Cheryl Keller, protesting farm prices. She says it's impossible to raise a family of ten when the price of eggs is three cents a dozen. If the new administration had only hired his opponent instead of Larry Schultz as Secretary of Agriculture, prices might have been better. Leo Casper, who promoted Mr. Schultz for the position, is in Antarctic doing research work on penguins. He wants to see how they manage to keep their shirts so white. Ruth Stenner, a co-worker on the project, has come to the conclusion that they must wash their clothes in Tide. Bob Gleason, a salesman for the Tide Company, says, "Of course they do--how else do you think they get them so clean clear through?" Sandy Freymiller, one of Tide's best customers, uses a box a week. "My children are impossible to keep clean," she says, "when I have to work all day at the toe nail polish factory. My boss, Dianne Furuseth, hasn't given me a day off in a year."

Working conditions under CIO can't compare with those of the FFU, "Fordney Freeloader's Union." President of the FFU, Mike Fordney, has promised a two hour working day for all union members. John Simak was pleased and says this will give him more time to pursue his hobby further. John has become quite a golf enthusiast. He aspires to win the 1973 golf tournament against his arch rival, Elaine Graham, who now holds the title of International Golf Champion. Elaine says the muscles she developed from playing her trombone has helped her game considerably.

Speaking of sports, Bill Stout's fabulous soccer team, "The Globe Sockers," have just returned from a tour to Turkey where they competed against Linda Lund's equally famous team, "The Shin Shockers." Bill lost his first game of the season. Linda's team said with a pep talk like that they didn't have much choice. It was slightly less convincing than those given by Coach Crogan back in the good old days, before Bette Olmsted invented the space mobile. It is convenient for its portability which makes it possible to carry it, when not in use, in your handbag or pocket, thereby eliminating the risk of being hit when it is left on the main highway. Our new highway commissioner, Larry Johnston, says this cuts the traffic problem down a great deal. This is especially true in the parking lots of the Goss Chain of Supermarkets. Dean says he just can't keep track of all that's going on so he hired an assistant manager, Duane Collins, to keep an eye on Judy Pasold, his faithful check-out girl. According to Judy, business is booming. One of the most frequent customers is Patricia Collins, who made headlines last winter when she appeared at a party with her hair dyed fushia. The "Miss Clairol" company has offered her a stupendous amount of money to do their next TV commercial, "Does she or doesn't she? Only Pat knows for sure." Harriet Bloyer, owner of the Werley Entertainment Center is trying to find the secret to Pat's unusual formulas. Her feature piano player, Doris Collins, is having a difficult time matching her hair and the color of the piano. Doris says she simply can't make another appearance until they match.

While we're on the subject, I heard the other day that Gerry Brandlin is head barber at Hotel Roosevelt in Junction Creek. Betty Cross, the mayor of Junction Creek, has issued a subpoena for the arrest of Mr. Brandlin. It seems he gave Arlyn Henkel a pretty close shave the last time he came in. Since he is a professor at the Junction Creek Agricultural School, Arlyn can't afford to be too close shaven. Mr. Henkel recently returned from a visit to New York where he was given a guided tour through the offices of the Standard Oil Company. He was guided by the owner and president, Marcia D. Finnegan Wilkins, who purchased the Wilkins Standard Oil Company the same week she proposed. The Standard Oil Company is honored with the presence of talented Miss Andrea Dempsey, manager of the Ups and Downs Department. (She is the head elevator operator.)

Sybilla Conley is serving as a good will diplomat to Inner Tanganyika. The chief of the Ubangi-bangi tribe has bestowed the highest honor of the tribe upon Jane Linton, who has brought a new cookbook entitled, "How to Serve Man." Jane obtained these recipes from Mrs. Brainerd.

The Home Ec. department has a new teacher, Phyllis Rector. Jim Klar, her talented assistant, is head of the new branch of the department. He teaches Home Ec. to boys, a task he finds very interesting. He is now in the process of teaching his class a course on the art of conversation. Demonstrations have been given by Vicky Reukauf. Vicky is an experienced telephone operator. She was absent from her job last week. She spent this time at the bedside of Betty Lou Witzig, who was seriously injured on the job. Betty fell from her bicycle while delivering a singing telegram to the famous "Ketterer Cousins," Susan and Frani, congratulating them on their new hit record. The song has broken all previous records for sales. Their efficient agent, Sharon Needham, announced that the girls will make their next appearance at the "Kansas State Carnival," where Sharon Yelinek will perform her famous trapeze act. Sharon is well known for her double-inside out-upside down-backward somersault.

In closing the conversation, Rosemary and Delores reminisced about their old girl friend, Mary Schambow, who is secretary to the President of the A.T.T. Mary was the one who transcribed the preceding conversation.
